

Information on Preventing Extremism and Radicalisation for Learners and Employers

Cambrian Training Company is aware of the risks and dangers both worldwide and in the UK associated with radicalisation, extremism and terrorist activities. The threats from such activities are very real and severe to our society and local communities and can involve the exploitation of all types of people including young and vulnerable people.

Cambrian Training Company is committed to providing a secure and safe environment for all learners. All employees of the Company recognise that safeguarding is everyone's responsibility irrespective of the role they undertake or whether their role has direct contact or reasonability for either children, young people or vulnerable people or not.

Cambrian Training Company uses the following accepted Governmental definitions of extremism and radicalisation as:

- Extremism: 'Vocal or active opposition if fundamental British Values, including democracy, the rule of the law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs; and/or calls for the death of members of our armed forces, whether in this country and overseas'
- Radicalisation: 'The process by which a person comes to support terrorism and extremist ideologies associated with terrorist groups'
